Located in fast-growing South Lake Union, our Café is looking to hire a savvy barista with a passion for excellence. We aim to provide a taste of Northern Italy via our house-baked pastries, desserts and our authentic Italian food, espresso, wine and beer. We are extremely passionate about what we do and what we give back to our community. We are a hard-working establishment committed to quality. We're part of a densely populated area with big businesses such as Amazon, REI, Fred Hutch, UW Physicians and Cortiva, as well as some new residential buildings like StackHouse and AMLI South Lake Union.

We're offering a part-time position to a barista with a minimum of one year manual machine experience, stellar customer service, and great communication skills. Candidates should also be able to pour perfect espresso drinks, and prepare paninis. It is mandatory that you be punctual, tidy, organized and reliable, and that you are capable of being on your feet and working hard for the entire shift. You must be available to work both weekday shifts as well as weekend shifts.

You are a person who takes initiative and displays confidence on a daily basis. Position requires a willingness to learn and take on new tasks and duties.

We're very much into cleaning and don't have a lot of tolerance for non-compliance.

We greatly appreciate a sense of humbleness as this makes for some of the best service providers and team members. Timeliness, enthusiasm and a great attitude are essential.

Job duties include cafe opening and/or closing, serving customers, cleaning and stocking, washing dishes, cash handling and being responsible for other daily and weekly tasks.

Email cover letter/resume to info@caffetorinoseattle.com, and include TWO supervisory work-related references with phone numbers or drop by the cafe and fill out an application.
